United States District Court, N.D. Illinois, Eastern Division. August 26, 1999. Angela Haven, Galesburg, IL, Pro se. MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER COAR, District Judge. Defendant American Center for Dermatology ("Defendant" or "ACD") has filed a motion to dismiss plaintiff Angela Haven's complaint pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P. 12(b)(6) for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. For the following reasons, the Court grants Defendant's motion. FACTUAL BACKGROUND Plaintiff claims that she was first diagnosed with generalized eczema on September 28, 1989 and that the eczema worsened between 1989 and 1996. On September 29, 1996, she had her first skin biopsy, which revealed a diagnosis of malignant melanoma. In December 1996, Plaintiff claims she had her first mole removal. On May 21, 1998, Plaintiff filed a claim with her insurance carrier to determine if her medical expenses were covered by insurance. On June 26, 1998, the insurance carrier informed Plaintiff that no benefits would be paid for her diagnosis. On July 3, 1998, Plaintiff filed an administrative claim with the Illinois Department of Insurance ("DOI"). On December 7, 1998, Plaintiff received a written denial from the DOI. Plaintiff filed her pro se complaint on April 20, 1999 and thereafter filed an amended complaint on May 24, 1999. In her amended complaint, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant's medical staff negligently failed to examine her skin lesions and to treat her generalized eczema. Plaintiff also claims that Defendant failed to inform her of a subsequent diagnosis of malignant melanoma. Plaintiff claims that Defendant failed to properly treat her after she had a mole removed. She alleges that Defendant's agents or employees "recklessly and intentionally" withheld medical and other information from her. She claims that Defendant's actions constitute medical malpractice and breaches of contract, the tort of intentional infliction of emotional distress, the tort of false imprisonment, and the tort of civil conspiracy. She seeks monetary damages. ANALYSIS Defendant argues 2d92ce491b
