
Advent Of Ascension Hunter Level Command

Commands are functions that the player can enter in chat to perform certain tasks. Advent of Ascension adds one team to the game. By default, it has the value "c". Commands with this value can be used to perform actions in combat. Commands with other meanings can be used in combat. Commands from the console can be used outside of combat. To do this, you must first enter them into the console, and then press the Enter key. After that the command will be run. Commands that work for all characters do not need to be entered in the console by default.
