Ticno Timer Cracked Accounts is a useful timer for iOS devices, which you can quickly add an application to your home screen for quick access. Ticno Timer is an app that has a powerful timer with many useful functions, such as: - Choose the time (from 5 to 60 minutes) to use for the timer - Timer settings - Ability to add preset times for you meals - List of all timers - Sounds and notifications - Ability to enable / disable timer Features: * Choose the time to use for the timer (From 5 to 60 minutes) * Timer settings * Ability to add preset times for you meals * List of all timers * Sounds and notifications * Ability to enable / disable timer The interface is a bit boring, but it's also simple. In the main window you have all the menus: - Add Timer - Settings - Deleting Timer - Mute Menu In the settings window you can choose between pre-defined timers: - Timer - Macros - Notes When the timer is on, a red light is shown. When you choose to turn off the timer, the red light is shown once again. If the timer is off, the blue light is shown. If you have a lot of timers, you can see a small clock at the top of the menu. Each timer has a different sound. You can choose a sound from the Settings menu or you can choose your own sound from the folder "Sounds". The timers are sorted alphabetically and with the Help button you can sort all timers. The Silence Button shows that the timer is OFF. If there is no timer, the Reset Button is available, which activates the first timer that you have. When you delete the timer, all the data, sound, etc. are deleted as well. You can use 4 different ways to delete the timers: 1. Press and hold the Touch ID of your iPhone. You will then be able to access the users to choose the desired timer to delete. 2. From the the timer list, click on the red button that appears when you press the Touch ID of your iPhone. 3. From the the main menu, press and hold the menu to see the users. 4. From the main menu, click on the red button to delete the desired timer. If you want to go back to a timer,

Review by Dave Simply the best app i've found for my LG G3, absolutely worth the money! And great value! This review is from Android Central article about Ticno Timer: The app is simple but quite useful if you want to do any cooking but don't want to have to look at your phone. And, since you can create your own timing functions, the options are virtually endless. I have created several recipes, with preset timers, for when to start cooking different things. Plus you can create custom timers to set them for different intervals, such as 30 minutes or three hours. Love this app!! Review by NoniepCote This is a great app. It is fast and easy to use. I use it for timers and it is very easy to edit the settings. I highly recommend it!! There's no better app for reminding you about preparing food when you're too busy Review by Dan I've always struggled to remember and keep track of whether I'd prepared a hot dish,
